ABOUT EDDIE OLIVE

WEBSITE & BLOG
WWW.EDDIEOLIVE.COM

Eddie Olive is my multi media brand; I have been inspired by the world from travel and my creative senses have opened up! Now as a multi disciplinary creative I enjoy many outlets including photography (especially interiors and products), interior design with a strong passion for building/ DIY and writing. So my brand truly embodies each part of who I am.

As someone who wants to represent your brand and showcase your products, I am motivated to know your brands mission on a deeper level as I develop the opportunity to work with you. To honor the partnership, I dive into your needs or visions with truly authentic and clever content: (reels, static post, RAWimages(for product marketing), video ADs and blog post or features). Through my TikTok and Instagram where I have built a strong and supportive community with my audience.
